

National Invitational Volleyball Championship 2018 Postseason NIVC

Radio and Live Streaming Fee

The National Invitational Volleyball Championship is a special event, and tournament organizers retain the radio, Internet, and television broadcast rights. Requests for the right to broadcast NIVC games must be made to the Assistant Director of the tournament through this agreement. This form must be filled out and returned to the NIVC before games begin. Payment will be made upon completion of tournament. Broadcast rights fees are as follows.

College/University Noncommercial Radio Stations

There is no fee for noncommercial university-run radio stations of participating institutions.

Radio or Live Internet Stream

The fee for a radio or ANY Internet broadcast stream (audio and/or video) is $100 per match. The originating school is allowed to sell access to the broadcast for fans if it chooses to. If a school broadcasts a match on the radio and does an Internet stream, the total fee is still $100 per match.

General

The radio station or organization receiving the broadcast rights is responsible for phone lines and other expenses required for the broadcast. Requests and any necessary payments for site setup and equipment should be directed to the host institution. Electronic media timeouts are permitted in accordance with NCAA guidelines. The availability of exclusive rights in a particular market shall be determined by the NIVC and the participating institutions.

Payment

Once your school's tournament matches are completed, payment is due immediately to the NIVC. (Federal tax ID number for the NIVC is 84-1127347). Fees may be paid by credit card or check.
